Duty of a Patrol

The patrol's job is to remind students of safety rules learned in the classroom and to guide them in safe crossing and bus passenger procedures. Patrols receive instructions in guidelines and procedures during their training and regular patrol meetings. Duties of all patrols are listed below.

- Set a good example and encourage other students to also observe safety rules at all times.
- Report for duty on time with proper equipment. Patrols will not be permitted to perform their duties if they are not wearing a patrol belt.
- Know and help enforce "fairly" all walking or bus rules and regulations.
- Report to the patrol sponsor or assigned Lead Patrol.
- Provide other assistance as requested.
- Attend and participate in all patrol meetings and training sessions.

Short Answer Response

Why do you want to be a safety patrol? _____

A safety patrol serves as a positive role model in the community as well as on the bus, or walking to and from school and during school. Please give an example of how you are a positive role model for other students.

Another patrol asks some students, who happen to be your friends, to quiet down because they are being too loud. The students, your friends, laugh at and ignore the other patrol. What do you do?
